This enviable central London location is home to world-class art galleries and auction houses including Tate Britain in Pimlico and Sotheby's in Mayfair.

For fashion, there is nowhere quite like Jermyn Street, Bond Street and Sloane Street with their luxury boutiques and traditional outfitters which are located close by. Gourmands will delight in the abundance of Michelin-starred restaurants located in the vicinity. For those in need of a respite, London's verdant Royal Parks – Hyde, Green and St James's – are just a short stroll away.
